

Fishing the Tide

T B:[...]go to the weahs it was one or two o' clock go fish da weahs depends on the tide on the da weahs you had the slackwaters [Rachel:slack water] yeah uh huh tied with slack you you pull no edge no float cuz if tide runnin' you couldn't move no whea we'd leave it was twelve one o' clock he go fish da wheas after you'd get through with the place he fish da wheas after he finish with the wheas get da fish up da market den go den go in da fields and chop corn work work in da fields

Conversation: Transcription Oral history Interview Thomas H. Brown, Sr.
Rachel (Interviewer)
Recorded May 17,2015
Transcriber: Alicia Bryant-Williams
First Thirty minutes transcribed October 26,2015

Transcription Key
TB: Thomas Brown
R: Rachel
UW-Unidentified woman
[>]-Unintelligible speech [word
[>:00] Unintelligible speech plus